

DANIELSON AND PUTNAM NEWS

DANIELSON

Florida Tourists Start—Dagenias and Senay Hearings Postponed—Holiday Motorcycle Races—Joseph Beauvais Dies on His Birthday.

Rev. Ignatius Kost is engaged in taking the annual census of St. Joseph's parish, Dayville, which includes Williams, Attawapung and Ballouville.

Rev. C. H. Barber had a large congregation at the Baptist church Sunday evening at the union service, when he gave an address on the Anti-Saloon league convention held at Columbus, O. The offering was for the Connecticut Temperance union.

Rev. M. J. Ginet, M. S., and the assistant priests of St. James' parish will resume the work of taking the annual census this week, a work that has been interrupted for about a month.

Start for Peninsula State.
Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Young and infant daughter and Mrs. Young's mother, Mrs. Sarah Dyer, Mr. and Mrs. William Young made up a party that left here Monday night and will sail from New York today for Florida, to remain for the winter. Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Young will go to Florida about Dec. 1, for a stay of several months.

Miss Gertrude Jette of the Emerson School of Oratory at Boston will spend the Thanksgiving recess with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Jette, Lorimer Dixon of Brown university will come home Wednesday to spend the holiday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter L. Dixon.

John C. Gallup was in Worcester on a business trip Monday.

Harry Peterson of the University of Maine is spending the holiday recess here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Peterson, of Hawkins street.

Charles Nallor has recently been the guest of relatives in Fall River, Woonsocket and New Bedford.

Willie Bartlett of New York, formerly of East Killingly, is spending a few days in town with friends.

Mail Unclaimed.
Letters addressed to E. E. Wagner and A. Holden are unclaimed at the Danielson postoffice this week.

Hector McConor, member of the town school committee, has received plans of the proposed fire escapes for the school buildings at Dayville and Attawapung.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph C. Young, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Young and Miss Clara Young motored to Worcester Sunday for a visit with relatives.

William Kilburray of Central Falls, R. I., was a recent visitor with friends in Danielson.

Albert T. Day of Springfield spent Sunday with relatives in Danielson.

Pheasant Shot.
Frank Moore shot a beautiful male Chinese pheasant that weighed four pounds in fields near industrial place, almost within the borough limits.

Members of the Pentecostal church are to gather at the home of Emory Tubbs this (Tuesday) evening for a cottage prayer meeting.

Union Thanksgiving Service.
Rev. C. H. Barber will be the leader at the union Thanksgiving service in the Methodist church Thursday morning.

Tax Collector W. N. Arnold says that about $4,000 of the town taxes on the list of 1913 remains uncollected.

Will Replank Bridge.
Selection of the towns of Killingly and Pomfret will arrange for the replanking of the so-called Atwood bridge over the Quinebaug river above Williamsville and unifying the two towns mentioned at that point.

Willard Bennett of Providence was a guest over Sunday of Principal and Mrs. Robert C. Bennett.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Kennedy will have as holiday guests Miss Margaret Sullivan and Thomas E. Hoey of Hartford and Miss Nellie Sullivan of Worcester.

Rev. J. P. Guinet, M. S., Hartford, spent Sunday in Danielson, delivering the sermon at the 9 o'clock mass at St. James' church.

Burial in Brooklyn.
The body of George Waghorn, who died in Hartford will be brought to Brooklyn for burial.

Rev. E. A. Legg is to lead the class meeting at the Methodist church this evening, when the subject will be The Parable of the Great Supper.

Herbert Barnett of Worcester spent Sunday with Danielson friends.

Henry McDermott of Woonsocket spent Sunday at his home in Danielson.

Husband Seeks Divorce.
Lewis Filis has taken action to secure a divorce from Rosa Filis.

Turkeys 40 Cents Per Pound.
Kaffee turkeys are selling this morning at 40 cents a pound in the markets in Danielson. Other grades of turkeys may be had at lower figures. There is an ample supply of chickens this year for the holiday feast and at reasonable prices.

Water Street Improvements.
The erection of a string of new

WHY ENDURE PIMPLES

CUTICURA Soap and Ointment

Do so much for pimples, blackheads, red, rough hands, and dry, thin and falling hair, and cost so little that it is almost criminal not to use them.

Cuticura Soap and Ointment sold throughout the world. Liberal sample or trial packet free, with 25¢ box. Address: "Cuticura," Dept. 410, Boston. No other soap will cure and shampoo with Cuticura Soap will rid the skin of scabs.

houses by W. S. Brown for the Danielson Cotton company has filled up Water street and gives an added air of prosperity in that section of the borough, where more new houses are also under construction.

Jailed for Sunday Spree.
Two prisoners were before Judge Back in the town court Monday morning. For having been intoxicated and for a breach of the peace, Anthony Morin was sent to jail for 60 days. The costs in this case were about $22. John Neary was given 30 days in jail for intoxication.

Remonstrance Hearings Postponed.
The county commissioners came here Monday morning at 11 o'clock to hear the remonstrants against the granting of licenses to Bill Dagenias, who wants to do business in his building on Railroad square, and to Charles T. Senay, who has applied for selling privileges in the Wintonian building. On account of the absence of some of the witnesses for Senay and on account of the inability to be present of Attorney S. B. Harvey of Williamette, counsel for Dagenias, the commissioners agreed to a postponement of the hearings until Dec. 16, when they will come here again.

Decision for Negative.
Resolved, That the state of Connecticut should adopt a system of direct primaries, was the subject at the November meeting of the Marietta Kies Debating society of Killingly High school. The judges, Miss Roberta Weston, Miss Eva Baker and Clinton Cleveland, awarded the decision to the debaters on the negative side. Those who supported the affirmative were Miss Dorothy Gilligan and Leon Burlingame, the negative side being taken by Miss Mildred Whitman and Kenneth Burlington. Members of the freshman debating society were invited to attend the meeting and accepted.

Progressive Missionary Tea.
The progressive missionary tea held at the Baptist parsonage was a novel affair. There were three tables, Mrs. W. D. Swafford, Mrs. W. J. Craig and Miss Grace Spalding being in charge. Different refreshments were served at each table—salads at one, coffee and cake at another, and at a third table different phases of home missionary work were discussed. Assisting in serving were Miss Dorcas Gallup and Miss Hilda Robert. Floral decorations were used with pretty effect at the parsonage, primroses being used in the parlor and carnations in the living room and pink carnations in the dining room.

Public Motorcycle Races.
Thanksgiving morning will bring the first motorcycle racing event to Danielson and the first event of its kind to Riverside driving park, where who will may go and enjoy the sport, for there is to be no admission charge. Five events have been scheduled and a number of riders from this vicinity will compete. Arrangements have been made for the following contests: Speeding guessing event, passenger carrying race, handicap race, singles race and slalom race. The first of the events is scheduled for 10 a. m. and the others will be run off in order.

WEDDINGS.
Massey—Jessaume.

At St. Joseph's church in Dayville Monday morning Miss Dora Jessaume and Adelard Massey, both of Ballouville, were married by Rev. Ignatius Kost. Mr. and Mrs. Massey left during the day for their wedding trip. On their return Saturday evening they will give a reception for their relatives and friends. Mr. Massey is engaged in business at Pineville.

Gendreau—Poitras.
Miss M. Poitras and Clinton Gendreau were married at St. James' church Monday morning at 6:30 o'clock. Rev. C. H. Barber officiating. After a wedding trip to New Bedford and other cities Mr. and Mrs. Gendreau will make their home in this town.

DIED ON BIRTHDAY.
Joseph Beauvais of Moosup Was 65 Monday.

On his 65th birthday Joseph Beauvais died at his home in Moosup Monday morning. Mr. Beauvais was a native of Canada, but has been a resident in the states for many years. For a long time he was in the employ of the Canebaug company here and lived in the mill village on the West side. He removed to Moosup a few years ago. He leaves his wife and two children, a son, Stanislas, and a daughter, Mrs. Felix Bedard, resident in Moosup.

PUTNAM

Hearsh Taken to State Prison—Danielson Woman Sent Home a Bible, But He Left It Behind—Maintained His Stoicism to the Last—Cain for Cheshire This Week.

Attorney Frank E. Howarth, taken to the state prison at Wethersfield Monday, proved a young man of iron nerve to the last. Not even when the doors of steel clanked behind him did he flinch. There was nothing in his appearance or manner to indicate that he had more than the slightest interest. He did not express one word of regret for the grievous injury that he had done to others or sorrow for himself, and he did not do so at any time since his arrest. Few men have ever passed through the portals of the state prison who could lay claim to remaining so calm and undisturbed as did Howarth Monday, and not one young man in ten thousand could have faced a situation such as he has faced in the last few weeks and be subjected to the tremendous mental strain without utterly collapsing. Not a word of reticence was Howarth spoken. Not a syllable against his companion, Cain, or the other witnesses of the state that testified to convict him at his trial. Not one remark to shed the faintest glimmer of light on his inner thoughts and feelings. He has asked no favors. He has sought no mercy. He has left his relatives and his fiancée without shedding a tear. He has been a man without the faintest trace of emotion or feeling—just absolutely imperturbable.

He did not know that he was going to the state prison Monday night, early in the morning, he was informed of the fact by one of the officials at the jail. The announcement did not startle him. He simply and casually went about his preparations for the journey—bathing, shaving and attending himself with his usual scrupulous care. The jail as he had come to it in September, without exhibiting any feeling. He was hurried over to Pomfret, in charge of Sheriff Sibley and Deputy Sheriff Pitts, taken on the Hartford train and comfortably lodged. On the way over he was allowed to read the morning papers, state publications, including The Bulletin, being furnished him, and he read the items with interest, especially the one telling of his own going away to prison. He talked a little with Deputy Sheriff Pitts, but said nothing of importance. The ride to the capital city was uneventful. Arrived there he was hurried into a taxi. A newspaper man poked his head in the door and asked him if he had any statement to make. He told him that the prisoner would say no more than that he was going to obey the rules at Wethersfield and do the best he could for himself.

At the prison Warden Garner was waiting to receive Howarth, who went through the usual form of reception. He filled the only vacancy in the prison, making a total of 835 confined there, the place having been especially reserved for him, though every county jail in the state is holding men sentenced to prison before Howarth's condemnation to go there. Within a half hour after he arrived there he was garbed as the other prisoners and had settled down to his long stay.

Sheriff Sibley said on his return here that Warden Garner expected to put Howarth to work in the shirt manufacturing department, where the labor is light. The sheriff described his leave taking with Howarth as marked by the same cold demeanor on the part of the prisoner as has become characteristic of him. "I shook hands with him and said goodbye," he said, "but he did not press my hand and I did not hear whether he answered or not."

A Danielson woman, the sheriff said, gave Howarth a Bible and wrote him a deeply Christian letter, expressing the wish that he take the book with him and profit by its teachings, but Howarth left it at the jail. Sheriff Sibley said that during his term in his present office he has taken six prisoners sentenced for life to Wethersfield, but in no case, not in all of them together, has there been such a great degree of interest as in the Howarth case, which the official is pleased to discuss, and he relieved of an unpleasant duty.

Cain, the sheriff says, will be taken to Cheshire some day this week, just when he is uncertain.

Heard About Town.

Miss Gladys Sheldon of Woodstock has gone to Bridgewater, Mass., to become a student at the Howard seminary.

A. C. Blanchette, Williamette, who has gone to Bridgewater, Mass., was a visitor with relatives here Sunday.

Charles T. Thayer of this city was a member of a party that killed a 26 pound coon on a hunt near Attawapung this season.

John Moran of Attleboro, formerly of this city, has been spending a few days with friends here.

Henry B. Newton of Attleboro was a visitor with friends in Putnam Monday.

Elks' Initiation.
Candidates will be initiated at a meeting of Putnam lodge of Elks this (Tuesday) evening.

Burial of George Warren.
The body of George Warren, son of Augustus Warren, was brought here Monday for burial. The deceased had been employed in Williamsville as a machinist.

Charity Ball in January.
Because the date first selected comes within the season of Advent, the charity ball by Putnam lodge of Elks has been postponed until the middle of January. The lodge will expend a big sum for Christmas charity, however, and replace the fund later.

OBITUARY.
Mrs. Albert Gagne.

A number of relatives and friends will go to Moosup this (Tuesday) morning to attend the funeral services at All Hallows' church for Mrs. Mary Louise Gagne, wife of Albert Gagne. Mrs. Gagne died in Moosup Saturday.

The body is to be brought to Putnam on a special electric car for burial in St. Mary's cemetery.

Mrs. Lydia Bennett.
Mrs. Lydia Bennett, 52, died Sunday at the home of her sister, Mrs. W. B. Stone, resident in the Sunnyside section of the city. The deceased had been a resident of Putnam for many years.

WEDDING.

Kreft—Tourtelotte.
At the home of the bride in North Grosvenordale Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock, Miss Jesse Laura Tourtelotte, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Tourtelotte, and Leon J. Kreft, a Webster newspaper man, were married by Rev. W. J. Smith, pastor of the Methodist church at North Grosvenordale. The Tourtelotte home was prettily decorated with palms and potted plants. A luncheon was served. After their wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Kreft are to make their home on School street in Webster.

Parklander Terrorized West Siders.
John O'Connell, who managed to start residents in streets on the west side of the city, got locked up Monday afternoon after complaint had come to Captain Murray that the fellow was raiding refrigerators in homes where he had entered and demanded food. He said he formerly lived in Worcester, but that he has no permanent residence at present. He will have an opportunity to tell his story in the city court this morning. O'Connell succeeded in frightening some of the people whose homes he entered.

Quarrelsome Operative in Jail.
Israel Rondeau, who entered one of the cotton mills in the north end of the city, engaged in a fight and destroyed some cloth, has been sent to the county jail to remain for awhile. His sentence was 30 days for assaulting George Bishop, 30 days for breach of the peace, 60 days for carrying a revolver and $12.50 costs. Rondeau took an appeal to the superior court, but as he could not furnish bonds he was taken down to jail by Deputy Sheriff Holbrook.

Big Feature Picture.
Zigomar III, the Eel Skin, was the big feature picture at the Bruders theater shows Monday. The picture is in three parts and proved to be one of the best features and a real one shown here in a long time.

Early Shopping Urged.
In Putnam, as elsewhere, there is being a great deal of effort expended in an endeavor to get buyers to do their Christmas shopping early. Merchants are prepared to take care of the business and a few wise people are avoiding the rush that will come later and also getting first pick of the good things.

Prisoners Need Books and Magazines.
The opportunity may not be realized, but there is a demand among prisoners at the Windham county jail for books and magazines. One prisoner, who was recently very much in the public eye, has expressed the wish that reading opportunities might be improved at the jail, where such a privilege is permitted.

Social and Personal.
Miss S. Elizabeth Clarke is to spend Thanksgiving with her sister, Mrs. E. G. Clark in Windham.

Mrs. A. W. MacDonald is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. William Holmes in Mount Vernon, N. Y.

Miss Mabel Whitfield and Miss Anna

Manson of Worcester have been guests of Miss Mary Wheaton recently.

Miss Emma L. Champlin has returned from a visit with her sister, Mrs. E. M. Brum, in Brooklyn, N. Y. Mrs. M. Griddle of Williamette has been the guest of Mrs. Ellen Bugbee of Elm street.

Miss Etta Hodges of Somerville, Mass., is visiting her sister, Mrs. George Chastice of Fremont street.

Rev. F. D. Sargent and Miss Bertha Sargent were in Brooklyn Monday.

J. C. Meenan has moved his family from Worcester, Mass., to Chapman street in this city.

Mrs. George Hathaway is confined to her home on Fremont street by illness.

JEWETT CITY.

Patrollock and Gabrowski Fined for Violation of Liquor Laws Appeal—Stringency of New Statutes Governing Express Liquor Carriers.

The town court was busy nearly all day Monday trying the cases brought by Prosecuting Attorney Judge H. H. Burnham, against Charles Patrollock for reputation and keeping with intent to sell, two violations of the liquor law, and against Joe Gabrowski for illegal transportation, in violation of the act concerning the purchase of liquor by agents.

Along with the case of Gabrowski appeared for both defendants. The cases were tried before Judge John Potter. Patrollock was found guilty and was fined $50 and costs on each of two counts, reputation and keeping with intent to sell. He appealed.

The defendant in these cases had no witnesses, the prosecution presenting no case.

In the case against Gabrowski he was fined $25 and costs. He also appealed. He said, as did Charles Maynard, who was fined last week for a similar violation of the law, that he supposed he was acting within the requirements of the law and didn't know that he was committing any violation. However, in the imposing of the fine both men were told that ignorance of the law was no excuse.

The six liquor cases in the last ten days have caused considerable investigation in various sections of the liquor law and the fact develops that the transportation of liquor between Norwich and Jewett City must be carried on an entirely different basis than it was thirty years ago. When the late Sam Carpenter started the express train then any old thing would do. Sam used to buy it by the barrel and deliver it in small parcels in Jewett City on demand. Now the public acts of 1913 make altogether new and stringent requirements of the liquor law.

He must have an order printed or written with ink, from the person for whom he is to purchase the liquor. The order shall in each case specify the kind and quantity of the liquor ordered, and the name of the person to whom it is to be delivered. The agent will cause the person from whom he purchased the liquor to endorse by perforation, on each order the date of the purchase, and endorse in ink the kinds and quantity furnished.

The agent must then deliver the liquor within forty-eight hours requiring another ink endorsement by the person who receives it stating the date of delivery. These orders must be kept on file by the agent, subject to inspection at all times by the proper officers of the law. This law became effective June 6, 1913 and because of the violation two Jewett City and Norwich expressmen have been convicted. Any person who delivers liquor to a person in Jewett City except as prescribed by the law shall be deemed to have sold said liquor and is subject to the penalties made and provided in such cases.

On Holiday Visit.
Mrs. J. S. Jeffers goes to Hanover today to spend Thanksgiving at the Lee home with Mr. and Mrs. W. B. S. Jeffers of Montville.

R. F. D. Man Sees Quail.

The hunting season is over except that one may still hunt rabbits. There have been no big game reported, probably fewer birds being shot than for some years. Hunters have reported as much game as usual, but say that it is to be found largely in the country roads instead of the woods. Automobile parties are seeing plenty. Perle Whitford the R. F. D. man says it is unusual when he does not meet with two or three flocks of quail the course of his long drive through the country which his route serves.

First Class Poultry.

Paul Geist, a Lisbon farmer, marketed 40 of the finest dressed young R. I. Red roosters Monday that have been seen here for some time. The birds averaged in weight four and one-half pounds, forty weighing over 180 pounds, they retail for 25 cents per pound.

Back from Fort Terry.

Max the tailor is on his bench again in town. During the year or more which he has been away from Jewett City he has been tailor to Uncle Sam at Fort Terry.

When You Cough

There is nothing better than

Hale's Honey

Of Horehound and Tar

Contains no opium nor anything injurious.

Sold by Druggists.

TRY PIKE'S
Toothache Drops

ORDER IT NOW

Raphine & Co.'s Light Dinner Ale 75c per dozen.
Kaiser's Pilsener, 50c per dozen.
Tressemmer's Bock, 75c per dozen.
Free delivery to all parts of the city.

H. JACKEL & CO. Telephone 184-5.

Hack, Livery and Boarding STABLE

We guarantee our service to be the best at the most reasonable prices.

MAHONEY BROS., Fall Av.